PHOTOCOPIES

PA-1186-8 Photocopy of ca. 1870 photo showing 228 South Ninth Street in center, along with now-demolished identical rowhouses. This view is reproduced in H.M. Pierce Gallagher's Robert Mills, Architect of the Washington Monument 1781-1855, published in 1935 by Columbia University Press. The photo was shot by Philip B. Wallace. Note original window sash, including sidelights, in triple windows. Also note elevated stoops with wrought-iron railings and fanlight of 228 South Ninth Street. Shutters on 228 South Ninth Street cannot be determined as part of original plan of Robert Mills.

PA-1186-9 Photocopy of early 20th century photo showing Franklin Row. 228 South Ninth Street is in the center. In 1935 the entrance stoop of 228 South Ninth Street was lowered to meet sidewalk level.
